

BETHEL COLLEGE PEACE LECTURES

* Funded by Schowalter Foundation

 Co-sponsored by the Kansas Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution

Co-sponsored by the Menno Simons Lecture Series

*Funded in part by the Mennonite Central Committee

Co-sponsorship by the Western District Peace and Social Concerns Committee began with the 1977/1978 academic year and ended with the 1987/1988 academic year.

Beginning with the 1987/1988 academic year, the Peace Lecture Series became a program of the Kansas Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution. In 1992 the Kansas Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution merged with the Bethel College Peace Lecture Series.

In each entry the first lecture listed is an evening lecture and was often preceded by a meal. Where two lectures are listed the second is usually a convocation address delivered the following morning. These were often also considered "peace lectures." A few events consisted of series of three or four lectures on consecutive days.

Marlin E. Miller, The Messianic Community, October 30, 1978. [Tape recording: MLA Cass 809A #59-60] This is for all four Menno Simons lectures, which one is the peace lecture? The order of the four lectures was rearranged. The Messianic Community was given as the Monday morning convocation. The lecture given Monday evening when the Peace Lecture was scheduled should have been on Liberation Theology. Tape 59A appears to have the lecture given first (on grace) which appears to continue with questions and answers to 59B. Midway through that side of the tape the second lecture The Messianic Community begins. Tape 60A is the final lecture on Mennonite and Contemporary Theology which continues onto 60B (which is blank after the adjournment of this lecture. I haven't yet located Liberation Theology.
