

A SYNOPSIS OF THE LIFE OF

HANS WARKENTIN

AND

WINIFRED RUTH KREHBIEL

Hans Warkentin, a son of Isaac J. Warkentin and Kaethe Willmsen was born at Halbstat, Ukraine Russia on September the ninth, 1906.

He emigrated from Russia after the Communist Revolution in the year of 1926. His family first came to the New Mennonite Settlement near Durango, Mexico (Old Mexico). This settlement failed to flourish and in 1928 the entire family came to the United States and settled in Reedley, California, where an uncle, the Reverend William Neufeld resided.

Hans Warkentin graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1933 with a B.S. degree in Chemical Engineering.

Winifred Ruth Krehbiel attended Bluffton College and graduated in 1931 with an A.B. degree in english and social science and then studied in the graduate division of the University of California for a year and one half.

Hans Warkentin was united in Holy Matrimony with Winifred Ruth Krehbiel on the third of April, 1934. They made their home in Fresno, California.

A SYNOPSIS OF THE LIFE OF

DANIEL RUTH

AND

ANNA SCHOWALTER

Daniel Ruth was born in Eichstock, Bavaria on the twenty fourth day of May in the year of 1841. He was a son of Johannes Ruth and Elizabeth Dettweiler.

At the age of eleven years he came to the United States of America with his parents who first settled at West Point, Iowa. He lived in Iowa for a time and helped his father with the farm work. At the age of seventeen he went to Summerfield, Illinois to serve his apprenticeship as carpenter and cabinet maker in the Vogt Brothers Furniture Factory. He served his time and then moved to Halstead, Kansas and started in the furniture business. He later moved to a farm near Moundridge, Kansas until in 1908 when he moved into Moundridge where he resided until in 1915 when he moved to Upland, California where he lived until he passed away on the ninth of September in the year of 1922.

On the eighteenth day of October, 1868 he married Miss Anna E. Schowalter in Ashland, Ohio. This union was blest with fifteen children, ten sons and five daughters. The second child, a daughter, Mary, died in its infancy

He gave all the children a college education. His wife passed on to her eternal reward on the third of May, 1921 and he received his call one year and four months later. The earthly remains of both lie buried in the Community Cemetery at Ontario, California.

July 10, 1956.

OTTO P. RUTH-MARY HALLETT FAMILY

A SYNOPSIS OF THE LIFE OF

OTTO P. RUTH

Otto P. Ruth was born at Donnellson, Iowa on the twenty third day of January in the year of 1870. He was a son of Daniel Ruth and Anna Elisa Schowalter.

He spent a little over a year of his life in Iowa in the vicinity of Donnellson and a little over four years of his life in Illinois in the vicinity of the village of Summerfield, Illinois.

In the spring of the year of 1875, a large group of Mennonite families migrated to Kansas and settled in Harvey County. The Daniel Ruth family was in this group and first settled near Halstead and then moved into the Moundridge area.

Otto P. spent another two years of his childhood in the Halstead area. From here the family moved to the Moundridge area where Otto P. grew into manhood.

In March of the year of 1905, the family moved to Upland, California. Otto P. was there not much over six months when he complained of feeling ill and the Doctor found that he had spinal trouble along with a respiratory disease. He moved to Phoenix, Arizona in an effort to cure the respiratory trouble. He was up and around until the last nine weeks of his life and during this period he was confined to his bed.

Otto P. Ruth passed away on the eighteenth day of May in the year of 1913 at Phoenix, Arizona. He was 43 years, 3 months and 25 days old. His earthly remains lie buried at Phoenix. The entire family mourn his early passing.

His survivors were; his wife, Mary, Nee Hallett, his parents, nine brothers and three sisters.

The names of the brothers; Abraham C., Adolph C., John J., Gerhard D., Edward S., Herman A., B. Alvin, Roy F. and Oren H.. The names of the sisters; Martha S., Elizabeth E. and Meta F.

June 16, 1960.
