

A SYNOPSIS OF THE LIVES OF

CHRISTIAN AUGUST VOGT

AND

BARBARA SELMA RUTH

AND

AND

CORA WENGER

Christian August Vogt was a son of Jacob Vogt. In the year of 1876, at an age of about nine months, he moved with his parents from Summerfield, Illinois to the vicinity of Moundridge, Kansas.

After coming west with his parents as a youngster he remained in the vicinity of Moundridge, Halstead and Hesston for the balance of his life, farming as a means of making his living until in 1935 when he retired and moved into Hesston where he succumbed.

Barbara Selma Ruth, daughter of John A. Ruth and Clara Ruth, Nee Eymann, moved with her parents from Summerfield, Illinois to Halstead, Kansas during the year of 1884. It was in this vicinity that Christian and Barbara met and became friends. This friendship blossomed into love and they were married on October the seventh, 1900 in the Garden Township Mennonite Church near Moundridge, Kansas.

They moved to a farm located about four miles to the south of Moundridge, Kansas and resided in that community until in the year of 1914 when they, together with the family, moved to a larger farm that was located about seven miles to the north-west of Halstead. They resided here until in 1918 when they with their family of eight children moved to a farm located about a mile west of Hesston which happened to be the home of Barbara's parents, the John Ruths.

The Ruths moved on to California so Christian and Barbara bought the home place. This union was broken on the fourteenth of March, 1928 with Barbara being called to her eternal reward. She was privileged to enjoy one grand-daughter, Verna Ruth, a daughter of Paul and Edna Vogt.

On the twenty seventh of November, 1929 Christian married Cora Wenger of Portland, Oregon. In the year of 1935 they retired and moved into Hesston where he lived until the day he was called to his eternal reward on the fifth of November, 1951. He lived to see twenty five of his grand-children.

July 22, 1955.

In India I attended a boarding school nine months

After coming back to the States I finished High School, took two years of college at Hesston, then I went to La Junta and took Nursing Training. In the year 1953-1954 I finished college at Goshen and that fall I was married to Eldon Dean Nafziger and since that time we have been living on a farm in Illinois.
Eldon farms with his father. For the past year and
