A SHORT BIOGRAPHY OF THE LIFE OF

EDWARD KREHBIEL
AND
MARY BILLINGS

The life work of Edward Krehbiel was as follows. Professor of Modern History at Stanford University from 1909 to 1922. Personnel Director at Weinstock Lobin Company of Sacramento, California from 1922 to 1926. Manager of the Black Star Gorham Jewelry and Silverware Store from 1926 to 1949. Retired in 1949 and died June 15, 1950 at Ridgefield, Connecticut.

MARY BILLINGS

Born in Dover, Delaware and of English descent. Was educated at Dover Academy, Dickinson College at Carlisle Pennsylvania. Acquired a B.A. as well as an M.A. Degree. Taught English in the High Schools at Olean New York and Ulysses Pennsylvania. Met Edward Krehbiel at Harvard Summer School, married and went to Europe where my husband worked for his P.H.D. in Paris and London. Lived in Chicago until 1909, where my husband studied and taught in the University. We lived at Stanford University for ten years, in Sacramento for four, then came East to New Rochelle, New York, where my daughters were educated.

Christine graduated from Vassar, Martha from Columbia University (B.A. and M.A.) and Susannah Ruth graduated from Cornell University and Cornell Medical School.

Mr. E. Krehbiel and I lived in New York City for four years before his retirement from business, and in Ridgefield, Connecticut for two years preceding his death. After that I returned to New Rochelle, to be near my daughters.

New Rochelle, New York. August 18, 1955.

Mrs. Mary Krehbiel.

PAUL GEHARD KREHBIEL-NELLIE ELLEN KELLEY FAMILY

A SYNOPSIS OF THE LIFE OF
 PAUL GERHARD KREHBIEL
 AND NELLIE ELLEN KELLY

Paul Gerhard Krehbiel, son of Reverend Christian Krehbiel and Susanna A. Ruth, was born at Halstead, Kansas on January 23, 1882.

He passed away at his life long home, which once was known as Krehbieltown, shortly after 9:00 P. M. on December 7, 1956, peacefully going to sleep with a pencil in hand as he worked with farm income reports, which he so dearly loved to do.

He passed away on the same farm on which he was born. He spent his entire life of 74 years and 314 days on this farm as his home with the exception of several months during his early youth when he herded cattle for his brother Jacob in Oklahoma Territory, and again when he was attending the Wichita Business College as a young man.

He continued with these two pursuits throughout life as he engaged in the extensive farm operations which involved detailed record keeping. He loved to work with livestock and had a fondness for horses. Because of his knowledge in this field, others often sought his consultation and advice on such problems.

Early in his life he was baptized and confirmed in the First Mennonite Church of Halstead, Kansas. His father, Reverend Christian Krehbiel, was one of the pioneer leaders of this group in America. Paul maintained his membership throughout the remainder of his life.

He was united in marriage with Nellie Ellen Kelly on the twenty third of December, 1908, by Reverend J. H. Langenwalter. Paul and Nellie began their home making at what was then known as Krehbieltown, later building themselves a large home on this farm. Soon after that this home became livened by the voices of three sons; Gerald, Lawrence and Paul Edward.

He worked long and hard and shared the hardships and successes with others of the Community, working to provide the necessities of life for his family. He also gave freely to others who were in need. The companionship was broken on the sixth of February, 1955, when Nellie preceded him in death.

He was also preceded in death by his parents and his eleven brothers and sisters; John, Henry, Jacob, Katie, Daniel, Christian, Susanna, Bernard, Martha, Edward and Lucas.

Surviving Mr. Krehbiel are his sons; Gerald Paul of Springfield, Illinois, Lawrence Christian of the City of Wichita and Paul Edward, who continued to be his everyday companion up to the time of his death; two daughters-in-law, Carmen Bernice, wife of Gerald and Billie Robert, wife of Lawrence; and four grandchildren, Richard Lee, Gerald Paul Jr., Larry Robert and Roberta Christine. Thus endeth this chapter with this family of twelve children. The Lord hath given and the Lord hath taken away.

The Memorial services for Mr. Krehbiel were held in the First Mennonite Church of Halstead, with his pastor, Reverend Roland R. Goering officiating, the Reverend L. R. Hobert, pastor of the First Christian Church of Haysville, assisting. He was laid to rest in the Krehbiel lot in the Halstead Kansas Cemetery.
