DANIEL HERMAN LEHMANN-CORA CASTILLA ALLEN FAMILY

A SYNOPSIS OF THE LIFE OF

DANIEL HERMAN LEHMANN

AND

CORA CASTILLA ALLEN

Daniel Herman Lehmann was born the twenty-eighth of March in the year of 1874. At the age of seven he went to Halstead, Kansas with his parents and spent the balance of his life in that area.

At Halstead, Kansas he was married to Miss Cora Castilla Allen on the twenty seventh day of December in the year of 1899.

Following their marriage in 1899, the couple made their home and lived on three family farms located six miles north of Halstead, Kansas. They resided on the farm until the first of August, 1929 when they moved to the city of Halstead where they made their home for the remainder of their lives.

Daniel Lehmann did considerable work in the line of Oil Leasing and also acquired some farms in Grant and Stanton Counties of Kansas and these became his principal business activity in later years.

He was an ardent sportsman. He helped to organize the Halstead Gun Club and also served several terms on the Halstead City Council.

His wife, Cora, was his helpmeet and as such was quite active until in 1915 when she became afflicted with rheumatism which made her life both painful and laborious for her remaining years.

They both passed away in the City of Halstead and their remains lie buried in the Halstead Cemetery.
