DAVID C. RUTH-MARY HAHN FAMILY
FIRST MARRIAGE OF DAVID C. RUTH

222

AGED INVENTOR DIED LAST FRIDAY

David C. Ruth passes away at his home at age of eighty three years.

David C. Ruth, an old and highly respected citizen of Halstead for nearly forty five years, died at his home in the east part of the town about eight o'clock last Friday evening, April 29, after an illness of several months from complications incident to old age.

Mr. Ruth came to Halstead in 1882 and was engaged in the lumber business, establishing the lumber yard of the Halstead Lumber Company. He erected the residence at the corner of Fourth and Chestnut Streets, now occupied by Doctor A. E. Hertzler.

He was an inventor of considerable ability and perfected the Ruth Self Feeder, the building for the manufacture of which was erected and is now owned by the Frizzell Produce Company. The Feeder factory was closed out to an Iowa Concern in 1905 by G. A. and Menno Hege, who financed it.

During all his life in Halstead, Mr. Ruth was a leader of things and the impress of his character is found in all the affairs of this community since an early date.

Mr. Ruth was originally a member of the Mennonite Church, but he later became associated with the denomination organized by Pastor Russell.

He peacefully passed away at his home at the time stated above at the age of 83 years, after laying in a comatose condition for several days. The following obituary notice was written by David C. Ruth several weeks prior to his death and is printed exactly as it was written by himself.

David Christian Ruth, son of David and Kathrina (Strohm) Ruth, was born in Upper Bavaria Germany on December 30, 1843.

At the age of eight years, in 1852, he went with his parents to Lee County, Iowa, and at the age of fourteen years, was baptized by pouring and by this became a member of the Mennonite Church. In 1911 he was baptized by immersion, symbolically accepting the truth as taught in God's inspired word, the Bible, that we are now living in the time and presence of Christ, setting up His Kingdom upon the ruins of the present evil world; Daniel 2:44.

At the age of fifteen years he went to Summerfield, Illinois where he served an apprenticeship of two and one half years at his trade as a cabinet maker. In 1866 he was married to Miss Mary Hahn of Summerfield, Illinois and to this union ten children were born, two of these dying in infancy. His wife, Mary, died in 1888.

In July 1889 he was married to S. Ella Lucy, of Summerfield, Illinois and to this union, four children were born, Rufus, the youngest, dying in January of the year of 1913.

He leaves to mourn his death, his wife, S. Ella Ruth; his children, Adolph, of Grand Junction, Colorado, Marcus, of Chicago, Illinois, Amelia and Amanda, of Winnipeg, Canada, Selma, of Burrton, Kansas, Ellen, of Proberta, California, Walter, of Greensburg, Kansas, Esther, of New York City, and David and Obed of Denver, Colorado. Also a sister, Mrs. Barbara Lehman of Halstead, Kansas, and one brother, J. E. Ruth, of McPherson, Kansas, one sister-in-law, Mrs. G. B. Ruth in Louisiana and one brother-in-law, Horace Lucy in California, fifteen grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral services were held from the Kinzer and Dreese Chapel at three o'clock Sunday afternoon and was largely attended by friends of the deceased and was conducted by Rev. C. E. Krehbiel, of Newton.

A quartet, composed of Messrs. A. C. and Walter Dettweiler, Homer Ruth and Lucas Peter Krehbiel furnished the music, and the pallbearers were Messrs. John M. Lehman, D. H. Lehman, W. T. Lehman, Paul and B. P. Krehbiel. Interment was in the family burial lot in the City Cemetery.
