Tour Overview

Poland was the refuge and homeland for generations of Mennonites during years of intolerance after the Protestant Reformation. As a result, the history of Poland is part of the history of many Mennonites around the world. As early as the 1530s, Anabaptists from Holland and the lowlands of the Rhine and North Germany found a sanctuary in the Polish Commonwealth. Unlike Switzerland and the Holy Roman Empire, Poland rejected the brutal religious persecutions plaguing Western Europe. As a result, along with others seeking religious freedom and economic opportunity, many Dutch and German Mennonites settled in Poland, and remained there until later migrations took some to South Russia and others to the American Midwest. A large number of Mennonites remained along the Vistula River until the end of the Second World War. Surprisingly, most Mennonites have overlooked these centuries in their own history, despite the fact that the years of refuge in Poland constituted a much longer stay than the later years of residence in South Russia and Ukraine.

This tour is designed to reacquaint persons of Mennonite descent, and other interested persons, with the country that provided their ancestors a safe and secure homeland for so many years from the sixteenth through the twentieth centuries. We will visit the significant sites of both Polish and Mennonite history, discovering the quintessential beauty of Poland as seen through the lens of Anabaptist/Mennonite history and learning how the sojourn in Poland shaped Mennonites in North America. Get ready to experience the amazing beauty and the astonishing significance of Poland as the homeland of our Mennonite ancestors.

A special feature of the tour this year will be joining a German Mennonite tour group for two short chapel services in former Mennonite church buildings as well as a rededication in the Rosenort cemetery of the tombstone of Elder Cornelius Warkentin, who traveled to and was instrumental in organizing church life in Chortitza Colony in the Russian Empire, today Ukraine.

Day 10 - June 23, Sunday - The Treasures of Kraków

Kraków is a royal city with a long and rich tradition, majestically situated on the Vistula. Left unscathed by World War II, this city of culture is a living museum of magnificent palaces and historical treasures. There are 300 ancient buildings and 58 churches and palaces in the Old Town. One can walk along the Royal Route starting from the Barbican and finishing at Wawel Hill, known as the “Polish Acropolis,” with its Castle and Cathedral, where Polish kings were crowned and buried. In the Old Town you can explore the oldest and longest mediaeval square in Europe, the Main Market Square. St Mary’s Church is there.

Morning walking city tour will include:

The Cloth Hall - Built for market stalls in the thirteenth century, today the Cloth Hall houses the Gallery of Nineteenth-Century Polish Art. Recommended place to buy souvenirs, silverware, leatherwear, wooden carvings, and colorful dolls.

Collegium Maius - Established in 1364 by the King Casimir the Great, this is the oldest part of the famous Jagiellonian University. Nowadays, it houses the Museum of the History of the Jagiellonian University. Its valuable collection includes the copies of Copernicus devices and other mediaeval astronomical instruments and appliances. An impressive arcaded courtyard from the fifteenth century.

St. Mary’s Church - One of Poland’s most beautiful and ornate churches with gorgeous stained-glass windows, lovely wall paintings by Jan Matejko and a magnificent Gothic altarpiece. Carved by Wit Stwoszcz between 1477-89, it is one of the biggest altars in Europe. Famous bugle call every hour on the hour.

Wawel Hill - With its Royal Castle and Cathedral, this is the seat and the Coronation site of Polish kings. One of the most important historical buildings in Poland, it houses precious works of art and splendid collection of Flemish tapestries. It is a great example of different styles in art and architecture through the ages.

Afternoon at leisure for exploring or shopping on your own. Dinner in a stylish Polish restaurant.

It offers a fascinating journey through airy chambers carved from the rock salt on three levels between 64 and 135 meters below the ground. On the world scale of sites it is exceptional and is one of the wonders of Poland. There are 380 steps down,

Tour Leaders

This tour is led by Mark Jantzen, Professor of History at Bethel College, John D. Thiesen, Co-Director of Libraries at Bethel and Archivist at the Mennonite Library and Archives, and Richard Thiessen, Executive Director of the Mennonite Heritage Museum in Abbotsford, BC, Canada. Mark and John founded the Vistula Mennonite Studies Association in 2002 and have published extensively on the history of Mennonites in the Vistula River valley. Richard has been actively involved with the Global Anabaptist Mennonite Encyclopedia Online (GAMEO) for the past twenty years, and served as Managing Editor of the encyclopedia from 2012-2017. Richard has served as President of the Mennonite Historical Society of Canada and of the Mennonite Historical Society of British Columbia. He has a keen interest in Mennonite genealogy and has been the creator and manager of the www.mennonitegenealogy.com website since its creation in 1995.

This tour carries on with gratitude the tradition established by Peter J. Klassen, the founder of the Mennonite-Polish Friendship Association, and continued after his retirement by Alan Peters of the California Mennonite Historical Society. These two associations were combined in 2016 as the Mennonite-Polish Studies Association and this tour also incorporates Mark's experience leading student and other tours to Poland since 2004. Our intention is to explore the Polish Mennonite roots of tour participants and to visit many of the villages where ancestors of tour participants once resided. To assist with finding the relevant places, John and Richard will prepare a genealogical report for each tour participant with roots in Poland.

The local Polish arrangements have been managed by the Travpol Travel Agency in Warsaw, directed by Andrzej Puchacz. His agency provides a wide range of excellent tours in Poland, and is particularly experienced in arranging Mennonite tours. You can visit their website at: www.travpol.pl. Our local guide and interpreter during the tour will be Ewa Hajnrych, who has assisted for many years with such tours.

Many of the "old town" portions of ancient cities are not accessible by bus, with many streets and city squares reserved for pedestrians only.
