Missing from microfilm: v. 4 (1906) #34-37; v. 6 (1908)

#5-6; v. 10 (1912) #31; v. 11 (1913) #52-53]

Note: With issue 36b in 1908, Die Friedensstimme began publishing twice weekly, an 'a' and 'b' issue. One could subscribe to the new 'b' issue and receive both, or simply subscribe to the 'a' issue. The existing Friedensstimme microfilm in North America has only the 'a' issues. In 1910, matters become more confusing as the paper ceases to use the letters. Our existing 1910 film has issues 1-26, but if one looks at them, half are identical. The real issues 2,4,6,... are missing. Issues 13b, 20b, and 51b are not missing from 1909; they never appeared. The issues prior to where our microfilm begins in 1906 are not in the St. Petersburg or Moscow libraries. Issues in 1917 and after are also missing.-
